

THE NVSC MODEL

Leaders place announcements in their churches' weekly updates and register interested people after the services.

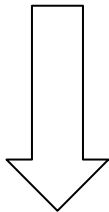

Informational meetings are held.

Individuals receive help with their applications, which are reviewed by immigration lawyers.

Immigration lawyers help immigrants understand the citizenship process and determine which individuals qualify for U.S. citizenship.

Copies of applications are provided to immigrants and the originals are sent to Immigration and Customs Enforcement.